

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Chap. Sec.

CALVERT COUNTY,—The act of 1825, ch. 162, extended to, and in operation in—sub- ject to qualification,	176	1
The orphan's court of, to appoint three commissioners of primary schools in each district,	"	2
And to fill up vacancies therein from time to time,	"	"
Oath required of said commissioners,	"	3
Penalty for neglecting duties, &c.	"	"
All the school funds of, placed under the control of the orphan's court of,	"	4
The power vested by the original act in the taxable inhabitants of the several school districts, hereby vested in the free white male citizens of the county, over 21 years of age, actual residents of, and taxable in the said districts re- spectively,	"	5
Taxes levied under the original act, shall be levied agreeable to the assess- ment of the last preceeding county tax,	"	6
The inhabitants of any school district in, so qualified, &c. shall have power to vote a tax on the property of such dis- trict, to pay the teacher, &c.	"	7
In cases of land in a school district, chargeable for tax under the act of 1825, or of this act, and no personal property to be found by the collector, he shall re- turn to the trustees of such district a list thereof, &c.	"	8
The said trustees thereupon, vested with all the powers for collecting, &c. which commissioners of the tax of any county have for collecting, &c. under the act of 1797, ch. 90,	"	"
The collector of such school district invested with all the powers of a county collector in such cases,	"	"
The original act declared to be a pub- lic and remedial act, not to be set aside for want of form, &c.	"	9