

MARYLAND PENITENTIARY,— Powers to complete said improvement, and to enforce the prison discipline therein,	320	20
Residue of the building to be arranged with reference to the most perfect organization and inspection of the female and hospital departments,	"	20
Annual report from the directors to the Governor, of the progress and cost of said improvements required,	"	21
The Philadelphia system to be introduced therein,	"	"
The directors of, empowered to sue for and recover debts, damages, breach of contract, &c. as a corporation,	"	22
Not entitled to the preference as State claims,	"	"
Money, bank notes, chattels, &c. used in attempts at rescue, forfeited to the institution, may be sued for, sold, &c.	"	23
No contracts for supplies to be made without one week's public notice in all the daily papers of the city, for proposals,	"	24
Best proposals to be accepted,	"	"
Bond required,	"	"
Contract to be rescinded, and suit instituted in case of failure therein,	"	"
Rules and regulations,	"	25
Directors, meetings, quorum, superintendance, monthly committee, their reports, article 1,
Agents, accounts, payments, &c. 2,
Clerk, his duties, records, &c. 3,
Warden, his duties prescribed. 4,
Employment of convicts, &c. 4,
Police and discipline, 4,
Intercourse with prisoners, 4,
Espionage prohibited, 4,
His authority in punishing, 4,
No person connected with the institution, shall accept any gift or promise		