CHAPTER 73.

Passed Feb. 23, 1838. A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to appoint Commissioners and to authorise them to open and lay out Alleys in the town of New Windsor, in Carroll county.

The Alley defined

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners named in the law to which this is a supplement, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to commence the alley to be laid on the south side of the town of New Windsor, at a point in the public road nearly opposite Mr. Atlee's saw-mill, so as to correspond with the south end of the lots of said town, running thence the whole length of the original plat of the town, then by a cross alley of sufficient dimensions for public convenience to connect the alley aforesaid with the main street; and the alley to be laid on the north side of the town to commence at a point in the public road leading to Union Town, so as to correspond with the north end of the lots of said town of New Windsor, and running thence to High street and no further, unless the commissioners in their discretion adjudge it necessary, in which case they are hereby authorised and empowered to continue said alley so far, and make such cross alley or alleys as the public convenience may require.

Oath required

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid are hereby required to qualify on oath, that
