

CHAP. 78. under the insolvent laws of this State; provided the said Richard Ringgold has in all respects complied with the several acts relating to insolvent debtors, except in his identity as the party grantor being certified to in the acknowledgment to the said deed.

---

CHAPTER 78.

Passed Jan. 10, 1838. An act further to continue an act passed at November session seventeen hundred and ninety-five, entitled, an act to Incorporate the Maryland Insurance Company.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the stockholders of the Maryland Insurance Company have prayed that the act whereby they were incorporated, entitled, an act to incorporate the Maryland Insurance Company, passed at November session seventeen hundred and ninety-five, which by its own limitation, and that of the continuing act of December session eighteen hundred and nineteen, chapter ninety one, will expire at the end of the session of the General Assembly next after the first of June eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, may be further continued:—Therefore,

Continued to 1858

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said act, entitled, an act to Incorporate the Maryland Insurance Company be, and the same is hereby continued, and shall be and remain in force until the first day of June eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and until the end of the next session of the General Assembly which shall happen thereafter, unless the same shall before that time be repealed by law; provided, that no such repeal shall go to affect any policy that may be made or any contract already in existence at the time of said repeal.

Banking prohibited

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, nor in the act of incorporation hereby continued in force, shall be construed to confer upon the said company banking privileges, or the power to issue a bank note or any thing in the form of a bank note or certificates of deposit payable to bearer.