

as reimbursement to the several counties for cases involving violation of Motor Vehicle Laws.

WHEREAS, all expenses for the maintenance of offices and salaries of Trial Magistrates and Police Justices are paid by the several counties; and

WHEREAS, the cost of providing these services has increased; now therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 99 of Article 52 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supplement), title "Justices of the Peace," sub-title "Trial Magistrates System," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

99. (Reimbursement to Counties.) The Trial Magistrates shall promptly report and remit to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, in accordance with the Motor Vehicle Law, all fines, forfeitures, penalties and costs imposed and collected by them in cases of violation of said law. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall keep separate accounts for each of the Trial Magistrates in the State. Not later than the fifteenth day of each month, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall remit to the County Commissioners of each county the sum of Two Dollars (2.00) Three Dollars ($3.00) for every case involving a charge of violation of the Motor Vehicle Law in said county during the preceding month, for which accounting or due report has been made by said Magistrates, said sums so remitted by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to be applied by the county to the payment of the salaries and other expenses specified in this sub-title.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1951.

This bill was passed at the 1951 session of the General Assembly and was vetoed by the Governor on May 7, 1951. Under Section 17, Article 2 of the State Constitution, as amended by Chapter 714 of the Acts of 1949, bills vetoed after adjournment of the Legislature must be returned by the Governor to the next regular or special session of the Legislature. This bill was passed by the Senate by a vote of 19 to 10 on February 7, 1952, and by the House of Delegates by a vote of 81 to 21 on February 12, 1952. Under the State Constitution, this Act will become effective on June 1, 1952.
