

such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the court having criminal jurisdiction in the case, at its then or next session, and to transmit said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the Clerk of such Court; and the justice of the peace, before whom the accused is brought for trial, shall inform him seasonably of his right to demand a trial by jury.

[Provided further that nothing in these sections shall be construed to change, enlarge or diminish the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace in any of the Counties of the State or City of Baltimore who are herein specifically vested with authority to hear, try, and determine cases under Section 388 of this Article, but that only such justices are vested with authority herein as would have jurisdiction and authority to hear, try and determine cases of violation of the law before June 1, 1941.

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to interfere with any prosecution that has or may hereafter be commenced for any violation of this section hereby repealed and re-enacted happening previous to June 1, 1941.]

407. If any person shall break into any shop, storehouse, tobacco house, warehouse, or other building, although the same be not contiguous to or used with any mansion house, with intent to steal any money, goods or chattels under the value of [Twenty-five] One Hundred Dollars, or if any person shall break into any shop, storehouse, tobacco house, warehouse, or other building, although the same be not contiguous to or used with any mansion house, and steals from thence any money, goods or chattels under the value of [One Dollar] Five Dollars, he, his aiders, abettors and counsellors shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be tried before the Circuit Court of the County wherein the offense may have been committed or the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, if the offense be committed in the City of Baltimore, and being thereof convicted, shall restore the goods and chattels so stolen, or pay the full value thereof to the owner thereof, and be further sentenced to the Penitentiary or House of Correction, or to the Jail of the County in which the offense may have been committed, or of the City of Baltimore, if the offense be committed in said City, in the discretion of the Circuit Court of the County or the Criminal Court of Baltimore
