

in its precincts or districts, as the case may be, who have not previously registered and who may be entitled to vote at the next general election and shall present themselves before said Board of Registry for registration; and such person or persons so registered shall be entitled to vote at all primary and general elections held thereafter unless such registration shall be cancelled as hereinafter provided.

(b) The proceedings of each Board of Registry shall be as follows:

(1) The hours of session shall be from 9 o'clock A.M. until 9 o'clock P.M.; provided, however, that the Board of Supervisors of Elections in any county may provide that the registry shall open not later than 10 o'clock A.M., or earlier than 8 o'clock A.M. and shall close not earlier than 7 o'clock P.M. giving notice of such hours of opening and closing the registry as hereinbefore provided in Section 10 of this Article.

(2) One of the officers of registration shall administer to all persons who shall personally apply to register the following oath or affirmation: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, name, place of birth, your qualifications as a voter, and your right as such to register and vote under the laws of this State."

(3) The two officers of registration designated by the Supervisors to have custody of the two registry books, or such of their colleagues as either of them may respectively ask to replace him temporarily in the discharge of his duty, shall make the entries therein required by this Article and the questions as to qualifications shall be asked by the other officers of said Board.

(4) The name and age of every applicant shall be entered in such registry book and all the facts of his application shall be therein stated as herein provided, whether he be entitled to vote or not. If it shall be determined by the Board that he is not a qualified voter in the precinct or district, then an entry shall be made in the appropriate column "No", and a line shall be drawn in red ink through his name and through all other entries on the line on which his name is written, but so that the name and said other entries shall remain legible; and if qualified, the entry shall be made in the same column "Yes".

(5) Only persons constitutionally qualified to vote in the
