

missioners may grant to the Authority the exclusive right to use such vacated streets, alleys or other public places for the purposes of the Authority, subject to such terms and conditions and in such manner as the Board of County Commissioners and the Authority may lawfully agree upon;

(2) The Board of County Commissioners may adopt such lawful resolutions and ordinances as they may deem necessary or desirable to regulate motor traffic and the parking of motor vehicles in the vicinity of any project or facility of the Authority and to regulate or prohibit in the vicinity of any such project or facility the construction, establishment or operation of competing publicly or privately owned facilities, and, to the extent that it may lawfully do so, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County may contract with the Authority that such ordinances and resolutions shall be irrevocable as long as the bonds of the Authority payable from the revenues of any project or projects shall be outstanding or for such lesser period as the County Commissioners of Baltimore County and the Authority may agree upon;

(3) To make advances of sums from time to time to the Authority from available and otherwise unallocated funds. Any such advances shall be used by the Authority solely to defray expenses for investigations, engineering and architectural studies, options and compensation of employees and counsel which may be incurred prior to the sale of its revenue bonds, and which advances shall be repaid out of the first proceeds of the sale of revenue bonds by the Authority following any such advance, unless the County Commissioners of Baltimore County and the Authority shall otherwise in writing agree;

(4) The Board of County Commissioners may at their discretion, by resolution, provide for such municipal or governmental services and permits, subject to such limitations, terms and conditions as said Board of County Commissioners may in their discretion determine, but such resolution shall not have the force of a contract with the bondholders and shall be subject to amendment or repeal at any time.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted:

(Credit of County Commissioners of Baltimore County Not Pledged.) Revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County or a pledge
