

per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding, however, from such computation the amount of any redemption premium. Such bonds shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 36 of said Article 31, Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1939 Edition), but they shall be issued on an annual serial maturity plan so that a certain number of said bonds will mature in consecutive annual serial installments. The City may provide by ordinance the conditions under which it will replace any bonds which may become mutilated or be destroyed or lost after the issuance thereof.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the bonds hereby authorized to be issued and the interest paid thereon, in the hands of the persons entitled thereto, from time to time, shall be and remain exempt from all State, county and municipal taxation of any kind and nature whatsoever in the State of Maryland.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That in order to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds as and when the same respectively mature and are payable, the City shall, in each year that any of said bonds are outstanding, levy upon all property subject to assessment for taxation within the corporate limits of the City, ad valorem taxes sufficient in rate and amount to provide the moneys necessary to pay said principal and interest when due. Said taxes shall be levied without regard to any present or future limitations on the powers of taxation of the City and shall have the same priority and lien and shall be levied and collected in the same manner as other City taxes and the payment thereof shall be enforced in the same manner as payment of such other City taxes are enforced.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, that the City is hereby authorized and empowered to accept from any Federal or State Agency, grants for or in aid of any of the projects listed in Section 2 hereof, and to make such contracts containing such terms, provisions and conditions as in the discretion of said City may seem necessary, proper or advisable for the purpose of obtaining or securing such grants or financial assistance from any such Federal or State Agency willing to extend the same in furtherance of any of the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, that any and all laws or parts of laws or any part or parts of the Charter of the City conflicting in any way herewith are hereby repealed, with respect to the authority hereby granted, to the extent of such conflict, and, except as herein provided, none of the limitations or restrictions on the powers of the City to borrow money,
