DEFECTIVE DELINQUENTS

5. (Defined.) For the purposes of this Article, a defective delinquent shall be defined as an individual who, by the demonstration of persistent aggravated anti-social or criminal behavior, evidences a propensity toward criminal activity, and who is found to have either such intellectual deficiency or emotional unbalance, or both, AS TO CLEARLY DEMONSTRATE AN ACTUAL DANGER TO SOCIETY SO as to require confinement and treatment under an indeterminate sentence, subject to being released only if the intellectual deficiency and/or the emotional unbalance is so relieved as to make it reasonably safe for society to terminate the confinement and treatment.

6. (Requests for Examination.) (a) A request may be made that a person be examined for possible defective delinquency if he has been convicted and sentenced in a court of this State for a crime or offense coming under one or more of the following categories: (1) a felony; (2) a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary; (3) a crime of violence; (4) a sex crime involving: (a) physical force or violence, (b) disparity of age between an adult and a minor, or (c) a sexual act of an uncontrolled and/or repetitive nature; (5) two or more convictions for any offenses or crimes punishable by imprisonment, in a criminal court of this State.

(b) The request for such examination may be made by the State's Attorney or Assistant State's Attorney who prosecuted the person for a crime or offense specified hereinabove in this section, or by the Chairman of the Board of Correction, on any knowledge or suspicion of the presence of defective delinquency, in the defendant in such case. The defendant himself, or his attorney in his behalf, may make such a request of the Court. Whenever a request for examination comes from any
