

such source, the Court shall order the person to be examined by the institution for defective delinquents to ascertain if he or she is a defective delinquent. The Court also may make such an order on its own initiative. A COPY OF ANY ORDER FOR EXAMINATION SHALL BE SERVED UPON THE PERSON TO BE EXAMINED.

(c) Such an examination may be requested and made at any time after the person has been convicted and sentenced for a crime or offense specified hereinabove in this section, provided that the said person has been sentenced to a period of confinement in a penal institution or is then serving such a sentence. No such examination shall be ordered or made if the said person has been released from confinement for the particular crime or offense of which he was convicted.

(d) The request for such an examination shall be by petition filed with the Court having custody of or jurisdiction over the said person, stating therein the reasons for suspecting or supposing the presence of defective delinquency in the said person. The Court in ordering the examination by the institution for defective delinquents shall do so by formal written order directed to the Department of Correction and to the Bureau INSTITUTION for Defective Delinquents.

(E) THE COURT WHICH LAST SENTENCED THE DEFENDANT, WHETHER OR NOT THE TERM OF COURT IN WHICH HE WAS SENTENCED HAS EXPIRED, SHALL RETAIN JURISDICTION OF THE DEFENDANT FOR THE PURPOSE OF ANY OF THE PROCEDURES SPECIFIED IN SECTIONS 6, 7, 8, OR 9 HEREOF.

7. (a) (Examination.) Any such examination shall be made by at least three persons on behalf of the institution for defective delinquents, one of whom shall be a medical physician, one a psychiatrist, and one a psychologist. They shall assemble all pertinent information about the person to be examined, before proceeding therewith, including a complete statement of the crime for which he has been sentenced, the circumstances of such crime, the Court in which he was sentenced, the nature of the sentence, copies of any probation or other reports which may have been made about him, and reports as to his social, physical, mental and psychiatric condition and history. On the basis of all the assembled information, plus their own personal examination and study of the said person, they shall determine whether in their opinion, or in the opinion of a majority of them, the said person is or is not a defective delinquent. They shall state their findings in a written report addressed to the Court. If the substance of the report is that the said person is not a defective delinquent, he shall be returned forthwith to
