

any applicant for registration. When challenged, an applicant for registration shall be carefully questioned, under oath, by the board of registry concerning the facts which may entitle him to register in the precinct. If a majority of the board of registry is convinced that the applicant is qualified to register, the applicant shall be registered as a qualified voter, but otherwise he shall not be registered.

REGISTRATION BOOKS

55. All registration books and lists shall be open to public inspection by anyone at all times in the presence of a member of the Board of Supervisors of Elections or other election officials designated by the Board of Supervisors of Elections.

APPEAL

56. If anyone shall feel aggrieved by the action of any board of registry in refusing to register or in striking off the name of any person, or by any other action of a board of registry, such person feeling aggrieved may appeal to the Board of Supervisors of Elections. Any decision or action of the Board of Supervisors of Elections may be appealed to the Circuit Court for Frederick County.

NOMINATION

57. Only the names of persons nominated in accordance with the provisions of this charter shall be placed on the ballot as candidates for public elective office in the government of the City of Frederick. No person shall accept nomination to more than one elective public office or hold more than one elective public office at any one time.

NOMINATION BY CONVENTION

58. Candidates for elective public office in the City of Frederick may be nominated by convention held for the purpose of making nominations to elective public office. A convention shall be defined as an organized assemblage of delegates or voters representing a political party or principle which at the last regular city election before the holding of the convention polled at least five per cent (5%) of the entire vote cast in the City of Frederick. A certificate signed by the presiding officer and the secretary of the convention and showing at least the names, residences, party affiliations, and offices for which nominated of the persons nominated by the convention shall
