

VACANCIES AMONG CANDIDATES

61. Should any person nominated for office die before election day and a vacancy thus be created, or should a similar vacancy occur for any other reason, the vacancy shall be filled in so far as is practicable in the same manner used for the original nomination. The board of aldermen shall provide in detail, by ordinance, how such vacancies shall be filled.

ELECTION OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN AND CITY REGISTER

62. On the second Tuesday in June, 1954, and on the same day every four years thereafter, the qualified voters of the City of Frederick shall elect from the city at large a mayor, five aldermen, and a city register and collector of taxes. The mayor, the aldermen, and the city register and collector of taxes shall serve for terms of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified.

VOTING PLACES

63. It shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Elections to provide for each primary, special, or regular city election a suitable place or places in each precinct for voting. If the Board of Supervisors of Elections is unable to find a suitable place for voting in any precinct, it may provide a voting place for said precinct in any other adjacent precinct. The board shall supply suitable ballot boxes and suitable ballots and/or voting machines and all other necessary equipment for use in each primary, special or regular city election. The board of aldermen shall have the power, by ordinance, to establish one central voting place for the City of Frederick at any time it deems it advisable, in which case it shall not be necessary to provide a voting place in each precinct.

NOTICE OF ELECTIONS

64. The Board of Supervisors of Elections shall give at least ten days notice of all special or regular city elections by publishing a notice thereof in two or more newspapers of general circulation in the City of Frederick, stating the object of the election and the date, hours, and places of holding the same.
