

use is issued by the superintendent, and (2) may be confiscated by the superintendent if not corrected as required by this section or if used or disposed of contrary to the requirements of this section.

11. Same: Police Powers: Right of Entry and Stoppage.—With respect to the enforcement of this Act and any other Acts dealing with weights and measures which he is, or may be, empowered to enforce, the superintendent is hereby vested with special police powers, and is authorized to arrest, ~~without formal warrant~~, any violator of the said Acts, and to seize for use as evidence, without formal warrant, incorrect or unsealed weights and measures or amounts or packages of commodity, found to be used, retained, offered or exposed for sale, or sold in violation of law. In the performance of his official duties, the superintendent is authorized to enter into or upon, without formal warrant, any commercial structure or premises, and to stop any person whatsoever and to require him to proceed, with or without any vehicle of which he may be in charge, to some place which the superintendent may specify.

12. Powers and Duties of ~~Deputy Superintendent and Inspectors~~ INSPECTOR.—The powers and duties given to and imposed upon the superintendent by Sections 8, 9, 10, and 11 of this Act are hereby given to and imposed upon the ~~deputy superintendent and inspectors~~ INSPECTOR also, when acting under the instructions and at the directions of the superintendent.

13. City and County Sealers and Deputy Sealers of Weights and Measures.—In and for each city or town having a population of 35,000 or more, and in and for each county having a population of 35,000 or more exclusive of any city in such county having a population 35,000 or more, according to the latest official State or United States census, there shall be a sealer of weights and measures, and such deputy sealers of weights and measures as may be required, hereinafter referred to as sealers and deputy sealers, respectively. The sealer and deputy sealers shall be appointed by the governing body in any such town, city or county in accordance with the local law as to such appointments. ~~subject to the approval of the superintendent, to hold office during good behavior. A sealer or deputy sealer shall not be removed, discharged, or reduced in pay or position except for inefficiency, incapacity, conduct unbecoming an employee, or other just cause, and until he shall have been furnished with a written state-~~