

Provided, however, that the revocation of any license given under the authority of this Act shall not become effective until fifteen days after the date set for a hearing before the State Board of Health, as provided for in this section; and in the event of an appeal from the decision of the State Board of Health after such hearing, the revocation of any license shall not become effective until the decision of the Circuit Court for the county or of the Baltimore City Court has been rendered against such person, firm or corporation taking such appeal. ] Any applicant for a license, or any license-holder who shall feel aggrieved by the action of the State Board of Health in failing to issue or in revoking or suspending such license, may within 10 days after receipt of notice of such failure or action, take an appeal therefrom to any court having equity jurisdiction in the county in which the property identified by the application or license is located, or to a court having such jurisdiction in the City of Baltimore if said property is located in said City; and a copy of such appeal shall be filed with such board. Within 5 days after the receipt of such copy, the State Board of Health shall transmit to such court all the original papers pertaining to such application, or revocation or suspension and such appeal shall thereafter be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be had upon the record so transmitted but the court may hear such additional evidence as it may deem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. The taking or pending of such an appeal shall not suspend the operation or effect of any order of revocation issued by the said Board, but the court to which such appeal is taken, upon proper cause shown, may suspend the operation of such order, and may attach to such suspension such conditions as to the court may seem proper. Either party to said proceeding may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of Appeals of Maryland, the procedure therein to be the same as in appeals from the action of equity courts in cases originating before the Public Service Commission.

210. Any person, firm or corporation who shall operate a cannery or a frozen food processing plant without having obtained a license as provided by this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than ] ten dollars ($10) ] one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, provided, however, that the said State Board of Health upon learning that said cannery or frozen food processing plant is operating without a license shall first notify the said person, firm or corporation by registered
