No. 16

(House Joint Resolution 9)

House Joint Resolution recommending that a commission be appointed by the Governor to study the question raised by and to report on the pyramiding of Federal, State and Local taxes.

WHEREAS, the pyramiding of Federal, State and Local taxes constitutes a vexatious problem which overburdens the taxpayer and imposes hardship upon the budget authorities at Federal, State and Local governmental levels; and

WHEREAS, in Maryland the general power to tax has been exclusive with the State government and Local governments had formerly been delegated only those powers relating to licensing and to taxing real and tangible personal property; and
