

[five] Ten Dollars each for each and every day they may be required to serve, and conduct an election by ballot on the fourth Monday of June, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the day following, for the election of officers provided for in Section 104 of this sub-title. The polls shall be opened between the hours of one and eight P.M. The Judges of Election shall prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the provisions specified in Section 112 of this sub-title, making them eligible to become a candidate for the office for which they seek. The Mayor and Town Council shall receive all returns of elections and determine all cases arising thereunder, except as otherwise provided by Section 108 of this Article, and any voter who feels that he has been aggrieved by any ruling as to the eligibility or his right to vote may file an appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County and the same shall be determined by said Court.

(b) Any person offering to vote whose name shall appear upon the registration books and who shall establish his identity to the satisfaction of the Judges of Election shall be furnished by one of the judges with an official ballot having the initials of said judge thereon, and he shall then repair to one of the booths or compartments provided and therein mark his ballot with a pencil marking a cross (X) in the square opposite the name of each candidate for whom he may desire to vote. He shall then fold the ballot without displaying the marks thereon and return it to one of the Judges of Election who shall in his presence deposit it in the ballot box. Any voter who shall mar a ballot so that he cannot vote it may return said ballot to the judge and receive another in its stead, and he shall in the same way be entitled to a third ballot, but no more. Said marred ballots shall be immediately cancelled by the judges by endorsing thereon the word "Cancelled."

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective unless at the next regular town election there shall be cast a majority of votes in favor of the amendment to the town charter as provided in this Act, and that at said election the question of the approval or disapproval of the provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said town of Brentwood, as follows, namely: that on the ballots provided by the Mayor and Town Council of Brentwood at said election there shall be printed the words: "For Charter amendment providing compensation for the Mayor and Councilmen, Supervisors of Election, Clerks, Registration Officials and Judges of Election," and "Against Charter amendment providing compensation for the Mayor and Councilmen, Supervisors of Election, Clerks, Registration Officials and Judges of
