

corporations owns property the title to which could be affected by the recording of an instrument among the land records.

(8) If the new corporation to be formed by the consolidation is to be a corporation organized under the laws of another state, the location of its principal office in said other state, and the name and post office address of a resident agent of the new corporation in this State, service of process upon whom shall bind such corporation in any action, suit or proceeding pending or thereafter instituted or filed against it under the provisions of this sub-title until the appointment of a substitute resident agent is duly certified to the Commission.

(9) As to each of the consolidating corporations organized under the laws of this State, a statement that the articles were duly advised by the board of directors and approved by the stockholders of such corporation in the manner and by the vote required by this sub-title or by the charter of the corporation.

(10) As to each of the consolidating corporations organized under the laws of another state, a statement that the consolidation to be effected in accordance therewith was duly advised, authorized and approved in the manner and by the vote required by the charter of such corporation and by the laws of the state under which organized.

(11) All other provisions deemed necessary to effect the consolidation.

(b) The articles shall be signed and acknowledged in the name and on behalf of each corporation party to the articles by its president or a vice-president, the corporate seal shall be affixed and attested by the secretary or an assistant secretary, and the matters and facts set forth in said articles with respect to authorization and approval shall be verified under oath by the chairman or the secretary of the meeting at which the articles were approved, if a corporation of this State, or by the president or secretary of the corporation if a corporation of another state.

65. (Articles of Merger.) (a) In every case of a merger the articles of merger shall set forth the terms and conditions of the merger and the mode of carrying the same into effect, including:

(1) A statement that the corporations parties to the articles agree to effect the merger.

(2) The corporation to survive the merger, the state under the laws of which such surviving corporation is formed, and the name under which such corporation will continue.