

(3) The name and state of incorporation of each corporation party to the articles, and as to each corporation organized under the laws of another state, the date of incorporation, whether incorporated under general or by special law, giving chapter number and year of passage, if incorporated by special law, and, if the corporation is qualified or registered to do business in this State, the date of its qualification or registration.

(4) Any amendments to the charter of the surviving corporation to be effected as part of the merger.

(5) As to each of the corporations party to the articles, the total number of shares of stock of all classes which the corporation has authority to issue, and the number and par value of the shares of each class or a statement that such shares are without par value, and, in the case of shares having par value, the aggregate par value of all such shares of all classes.

(6) The number of shares of stock, if any, of each class of the surviving corporation to be issued for shares of stock of each class of each of the corporations party to the articles, which number may be greater or less than the number of shares of the corporations party to the articles of any or all classes then outstanding; the manner of converting the stock of each of the corporations party to the articles into stock of the surviving corporation; and the nature and amount of any other consideration to be paid, transferred or issued by the surviving corporation for shares of stock of each class of each of the corporations party to the articles.

(7) The counties of this State in which are located the principal offices of each of the corporations party to the articles, and the counties of this State in which any of the corporations party to the articles, other than the surviving corporation, owns property the title to which could be affected by the recording of an instrument among the land records.

(8) If the surviving corporation is a corporation organized under the laws of another state, the location of its principal office in said other state, and the name and post office address of a resident agent of the surviving corporation in this State, service of process upon whom shall bind such corporation in any action, suit or proceeding pending or thereafter instituted or filed against it under the provisions of this sub-title until the appointment of a substitute resident agent is duly certified to the Commission.

(9) As to each corporation organized under the laws of this State, a statement that the articles were duly advised by