

mission articles of dissolution, and pay the fees provided by law.

(b) The dissolution of the corporation shall be effective when the articles of dissolution have been accepted for record by the Commission, provided, however, that the corporation shall continue in existence for the purpose of paying, satisfying and discharging any existing debts and obligations, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all other acts required to liquidate and wind up its business and affairs.

(c) Upon acceptance for record of articles of dissolution, the Commission shall publish, once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which is located the principal office of the corporation in this State, notice setting forth the name of the corporation and that articles of dissolution have been accepted for record by the Commission in accordance with this Article. Failure of the Commission to publish such notice shall not invalidate the dissolution.

(d) At any time prior to the filing of the articles of dissolution, the corporation may authorize the abandonment or revocation of the dissolution proceedings by taking the same corporate action with respect to such abandonment or revocation as is required by this section for the authorization of dissolution. Within thirty days of the date of such abandonment or revocation, notice thereof shall be mailed by the corporation to all creditors at their respective post office addresses according to the records of the corporation, to whom notice of authorization of dissolution was previously mailed.

73. (Articles of Dissolution.) (a) In every case of voluntary dissolution, the articles of dissolution shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the post office address of its principal office in this State.

(2) The name and post office address of a resident agent of the corporation in this State, service of process upon whom shall bind the corporation in any action, suit or proceeding pending or thereafter instituted or filed against the corporation for one year after dissolution and thereafter until the affairs of the corporation are wound up.

(3) The name and post office address of each of the directors of the corporation.

(4) The name, title and post office address of each of the officers of the corporation.

(5) A statement that dissolution of the corporation was duly authorized by a majority of the entire board of directors