

(1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes.

(2) Holding meetings of its directors or stockholders or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.

(3) Maintaining bank accounts.

(4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange and registration of its securities, or appointing and maintaining trustees or depositaries with relation to its securities.

(5) Transacting business exclusively in interstate commerce.

(6) Conducting an isolated transaction not in the course of a number of transactions of like nature.

85. (Assent to State Laws.) Every foreign corporation doing intrastate or interstate or foreign business in this State shall be deemed thereby to have assented to all the provisions of the laws of this State.

86. (Qualification and Registration.) (a) Every foreign corporation doing intrastate or interstate or foreign business in this State, except insurance companies subject to the provisions of Article 48A, and except railroads operating in this State and national banks, shall have at least one resident agent in this State whose name and address, as such, have been certified to the Commission, and also a mailing address which has likewise been certified to the Commission. Each such foreign corporation shall continue to have at least one such resident agent and a mailing address so certified as long as it is subject to suit in this State. Service of process upon any such resident agent of a foreign corporation shall bind such foreign corporation in any action in which it is subject to suit in this State; but, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article to the contrary, compliance with this section shall not of itself render a foreign corporation subject to suit in this State, or be construed as a consent by it to be sued in this State, on any cause of action on which it would not be subject to suit in this State if it had not complied with this section. The resignation of a resident agent of a foreign corporation shall not be effective until ten days after an original counterpart thereof has been filed with the Commission unless at the time of such resignation such foreign corporation has one or more other resident agents.

(b) Any such foreign corporation may at any time certify to the Commission, (1) the location of a principal office in
