

any action taken or authorized in accordance with such charter or by-law provision shall be valid and effective.

(c) If a meeting of the members of any corporation of this State without capital stock has been duly called for any lawful purpose, and at such meeting a sufficient number of members to approve or authorize the proposed action is not in attendance, then, if the notice of such meeting stated that the procedure authorized by this section might be invoked, the members present at such meeting in person or by proxy may by majority vote call a further meeting of the members for the same purpose. Fifteen days notice of the time, place and purpose of such further meeting shall be given by advertisement inserted in a newspaper published in the county in which is located the principal office of the corporation. At such further meeting the members present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum and by majority vote of those present in person or by proxy may approve or authorize the proposed action and take any other action which might have been taken at the original meeting if a sufficient number of members had been present; and the notice of such further meeting shall so state.

204. (Consolidation or Merger.) No corporation of this State without capital stock shall consolidate or merge with any corporation other than another corporation without capital stock.

205. (Restrictions on Property Holdings.) No provision contained in the charter of any charitable or benevolent society or corporation of this State, existing on June 1, 1951, whether incorporated under any general or special law of this State, purporting to limit or restrict the tenure or enjoyment of property or income, shall, after June 1, 1951, be effective to limit or restrict the right of such corporation to hold, enjoy, use and deal with any property and income in any way; and all such provisions are hereby annulled and revoked.

206. (Unincorporated Associations.) Every unincorporated association or joint stock company having a recognized group name may sue or be sued in such group name in any action affecting the common property, rights and liabilities of such association or joint stock company. Such action shall have the same force and effect as regards the common property, rights and liabilities of such association or joint stock company as if it were prosecuted by or against all the members or shareholders thereof. No such action shall abate by reason of the death, resignation, removal or incapacity of any officer, member or shareholder of such association or joint stock company or by reason of any change in the membership
