

The said Commissioner shall appoint a Secretary and shall prescribe his duties, and the entire compensation for all the services he shall render as aforesaid shall be such sum as shall seem proper to said Commissioners. All ordinances passed by said Commissioners shall be entered by the Secretary in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and said ordinances, or printed copies thereof, shall be kept for the inspection of any person interested, and they shall also appoint a bailiff for the Town, who within the limits of said Town, shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of constables.

84. All the public property belonging to the town shall be vested in said Commissioners, who [shall use the same for the benefit of the town, and they] may sell or lease the same [with the consent of a majority of the voters of the town; and may impose fines not exceeding Ten Dollars for the violation of the by-laws, which fines shall be collected, in the name of the said Commissioners, as small debts.] for the benefit of the Town, but only with the consent of the majority of the qualified voters of said Town, except leases for periods of one year or less, which may be executed at the discretion of said Commissioners.

84A. Said Commissioners shall be five in number, and shall be elected by ballot on the second Monday of January, annually; all inhabitants of said Town who are citizens of the State of Maryland, above twenty-one years of age, who shall have actually resided in the Town for six months next preceding the election, at which they shall offer to vote, shall be entitled to vote for said Commissioners but no person shall be eligible for the office of Commissioner unless he shall be a citizen of the State of Maryland and shall have resided in said Town for a period of one year.

84B. The said Commissioners and all the officers in the said corporation, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall take an oath before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths that they will diligently and faithfully, to the best of their judgment and ability, discharge the duties of their office without favor, partiality or prejudice; and said Commissioners shall meet not more than one week after their election and shall select one of their number President, who shall preside at their meetings and preserve order; they shall also select one of their number as Treasurer of said corporation to serve until his successor shall qualify, whose duties it shall be to receive and receipt for all moneys belonging to said corporation or to which it shall be in anywise entitled, to collect and receive all taxes, general or special, levied upon the assessed value of all property within said Town, and receive the fines
