

five days from each month of the period of the commitment or sentence.

(2) For each calendar month commencing on the first day of the month next after his arrival at the institution, during which under such regulations as shall be established by the County Commissioners he shall be deemed to have manifested exceptional industry, application and skill in the performance of industrial, agricultural or administrative tasks assigned to him, he may, in the discretion of the County Commissioners, be allowed an additional deduction of five more days from each month of the period of his commitment or sentence. This sub-section shall not be construed to authorize any deduction because of work performed before June 1, 1951.

(3) For each and every violation of the rules and discipline of the institution, or want of fidelity or care in the performance of work, the person herein confined shall not only forfeit all gained time in the month in which such delinquency occurs, but, according to the aggravated nature or frequency of his offense, the County Commissioners may deduct a portion of all his gained time for good conduct under Sub-section (1) of this section but the deduction allowed and earned under Subsection (2) hereof shall not be affected thereby.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1951.

Approved March 28, 1951.
