

information acquired by him during such employment in respect to any work to which he shall have been assigned by such employers, except as such disclosure may be required by the provisions of this sub-title or in connection with any investigation of a licensee by the superintendent. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, and any employee of a licensed private detective business who shall willfully make a false report or statement to his employer in respect to any matter or thing connected with his employment shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

82. Filing report of conviction.

The State's Attorney of the county in which any conviction for a violation of any provisions of this sub-title shall, within ten days thereafter, make and file with the superintendent a report showing the date of such conviction, the name of the person convicted and the nature of the charge.

83. Identification card.

For the purpose of identification of persons engaged in the conduct of a private detective business, or as a private detective or investigator, each such person shall carry and show upon request of a duly authorized and constituted authority an identification card in such form as the superintendent may prescribe.

84. Use or display of identification card of another.

No private detective or investigator or employee of a private detective business who is in possession of any identification card, as provided for in the preceding section, shall lend it to another, or allow or permit any other person to use or display such identification card, and in case of the loss of any such identification card, shall forthwith notify the superintendent of such loss and the circumstances surrounding the same.

85. Badge or Shield.

The superintendent, in his discretion, may authorize any licensee under this sub-title to wear a badge or shield or to permit any of his, their or its officers, operators or employees to wear such badge or shield indicating that fact; but every uniformed guard or watchman shall wear or display an identifying shield or badge. Without such express authority, no person licensed under the provisions of this sub-title, or the officers, directors, employees, operators or agents thereof, shall wear, carry or accept any badge or shield purporting to indicate that such person is a private detective or investigator or connected with the private detective business.
