

superintendent of a notice of appeal; provided that, in the discretion of the Court, any party, including the superintendent, shall have the right to present any new or additional evidence pertinent to the matter. The determination of the superintendent shall be prima facie correct and the burden of proof shall be on the appellant to show that the superintendent acted fraudulently, arbitrarily or capriciously. The Court may affirm, modify or reverse the determination of the superintendent and the decision of the Court shall be final. No further appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

91B. Should any Section or provision of this sub-title be held to be invalid by any Court of competent jurisdiction, the same shall not affect the validity of the sub-title as a whole or any part thereof other than the portion so held to be invalid.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1951.

Approved March 31, 1951.

CHAPTER 264

(Senate Bill 95)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 235A—235J, of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supplement), title "Public Education," sub-title "University of Maryland," as said sections were enacted by Chapter 61 of the Acts of 1950, authorizing the University of Maryland to construct buildings at College Park and in Baltimore City to provide additional facilities for students, to impose charges or fees for the right of use thereof and authorizing the University of Maryland to issue revenue bonds for the construction of said buildings, the principal and interest of which to be payable solely from the fees and charges for the right to use of the buildings constructed with the proceeds of said bonds except for interest prior to, during and for one year after completion of construction, provided that interest during such period may be paid out of
