

shall be eligible to hold that office again until one full term has intervened.

Section 4.03. Office of Lieutenant Governor.

There shall be a lieutenant governor, who shall have only the duties delegated to him by the governor. No power specifically vested in the governor by this Constitution shall be delegated to the lieutenant governor pursuant to this section.

Section 4.04. Qualifications of Lieutenant Governor.

The lieutenant governor shall have attained the age of thirty years at the time of his election or appointment and shall have been a qualified voter in the State for at least five years immediately preceding his election or appointment. No person elected governor shall be eligible thereafter to hold the office of lieutenant governor.

Section 4.05. Election of Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

The governor shall be elected by the voters of the State for a term beginning on the first Wednesday in January following his election and ending on the first Wednesday in January in the fourth year thereafter, and shall serve until a person has qualified to become governor or to serve as acting governor. If the first Wednesday in January is a legal holiday the term shall begin on the next day. In the general election, each candidate for lieutenant governor shall be listed on the ballot with a candidate for governor, so that a vote cast for governor shall be considered as also cast for the lieutenant governor listed on the ballot with the candidate for governor. The election of a governor shall constitute the election for the same term of the lieutenant governor who was listed on the ballot with him.

GUBERNATORIAL SUCCESSION

Section 4.06. Failure of Governor-Elect to Take Office.

If the governor-elect is disqualified, resigns, or dies, the lieutenant governor-elect shall become governor for the full term.
