

Section 1.04. Fair Treatment in Investigations.

No person shall be denied the right to fair and just treatment in any investigation conducted by the State or by any unit of local government, or by any of their departments or agencies.

Section 1.05. Searches and Seizures.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches, seizures, interceptions of their communications, or other invasions of their privacy, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized, or the communications sought to be intercepted.

Section 1.06. Grand Jury Indictment.

No person shall be held to answer for a felony unless on indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the militia while in actual service.

Section 1.07. Rights of Accused.

A person accused of crime shall have the right to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation in time to prepare his defense, to have the assistance of counsel for his defense, to be confronted with and to examine under oath or affirmation the witnesses against him, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses, and to have a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of twelve without whose unanimous consent he shall not be adjudged guilty.

Section 1.08. Removal of Criminal Cases.

In a case involving a crime punishable by death or life imprisonment, after suggestion in writing under oath by either party that the party cannot have a fair and impartial trial in the county where the case is pending, the court shall order the case removed to another county for trial. Other criminal cases may be
