

of all members of the General Assembly in joint session. The election shall be the first order of business after the organization of each house. The election of a governor shall constitute the election for the same term of the lieutenant governor who was listed on the ballot with him at the general election.

Section 4.24. Salaries.

The salary of the governor, of the lieutenant governor, of the attorney general, and of the comptroller shall be prescribed by law, and shall neither be increased nor decreased during the term for which each was elected.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION

Section 4.25. Board of Review.

There shall be a Board of Review in the executive branch. The Board shall consist of the governor, an officer in the executive branch designated by the governor, and the comptroller. The Board shall act by majority vote and shall hold its meetings in public or otherwise act in such manner and have such powers as the General Assembly may prescribe by law.

Section 4.26. Structure of the Executive Branch.

All functions, powers, and duties of the offices, agencies, and instrumentalities of the executive branch shall be allocated according to major purposes among and within not more than twenty principal departments. The maximum number of principal departments may be increased by the General Assembly by law enacted by the affirmative vote of three-fifths of all members of each house. Any agency or commission which is a regulatory, quasi-judicial, or temporary agency established by law may, but need not, be allocated within a principal department.

Section 4.27. Reorganization of the Executive Branch.

The General Assembly shall prescribe by law the functions, powers, and duties of the offices, agencies, and instrumentalities
