

amendment shall become effective thirty days after approval by the vote of a majority of those voting on the amendment.

Section 10.04. Constitutional Convention.

The General Assembly by law may call a constitutional convention at any time or may submit the question of calling a constitutional convention to the voters of the State at any time. If a constitutional convention shall not have been called or if the question of calling a convention shall not have been submitted to the voters of the State for a period of twenty years, then the question shall be submitted at the next general election. A convention shall be held within two years after a majority of those voting on the question approve the calling of a convention or within two years after the General Assembly calls a convention. Within sixty days after approval by the voters or within sixty days after the General Assembly calls a convention, the governor shall appoint a commission to prepare for the convention. Not later than the second regular session following the approval, the General Assembly shall prescribe by law the manner for electing delegates, for filling vacancies in the position of delegate, and for assembling the convention, and shall appropriate sufficient funds for the work of the convention. The convention shall adopt its own rules of procedure. Any proposal recommended by the convention for changing the Constitution shall be submitted to the voters of the State for adoption, and shall be effective only if approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of those voting on the proposal.

VOTE ON THE CONSTITUTION

This Constitution, the attached Schedule of Transitional Provisions, and the attached Schedule of Legislation shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State for ratification or
