

(c) The initial salary to be paid by the State to a judge of the Intermediate Appellate Court shall not be less than the total salary, including any local supplementation, paid on January 1, 1968, to the chief judge of the Court of Special Appeals.

(d) The initial salary to be paid by the State to a judge of the Superior Court shall not be less than the total salary, including any local supplementation, paid on January 1, 1968, to the chief judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.

(e) In establishing a uniform scale of judicial salaries and pensions, including those for the District Court, the General Assembly may disregard any local supplementation or local salary or pension authorized after January 1, 1968, and such action shall not be deemed to be a diminution of the salary or pension of any judge.

Section 30. Restriction of Non-Judicial Activities.

Section 5.25 shall not apply to judges of the Orphans' Court, justices of the peace or judges of any People's Court, except for full-time judges of the Municipal Court of Baltimore City, of the People's Court of Baltimore City and of the People's Courts of Anne Arundel, Cecil, Montgomery, Prince George's and Wicomico counties. Until January 1, 1970, the provisions of article 33 of the Declaration of Rights of the prior Constitution shall remain in effect as to any judge or justice of the peace not subject to section 5.25.

Section 31. Commission on Judicial Disabilities.

The provisions of section 5.26 providing that a judge of the District Court shall be a member of the Commission on Judicial Disabilities shall not become effective until January 1, 1970. Prior to that date, the Court of Appeals shall appoint one of the full-time judges of the Municipal Court of Baltimore City or the People's Court of Baltimore City, or the People's Court of Anne Arundel, Cecil, Montgomery, Prince George's or Wicomico counties as a member of the Commission on Judicial Disabilities. If such member is continued in office on January 1, 1970, as a judge of the District Court and if his term on the Commission on Judicial Disabilities has not expired, he shall remain in office as a member of the Commission on Judicial Disabilities for the
