

(h) The County Commissioners of each county and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall levy sufficient funds to meet the schedule of minimum salaries herein established.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That during the school years 1953-54 and 1954-55, being respectively in the State fiscal years ending June 30, 1954, and June 30, 1955, each supervising teacher, supervisor of pupil personnel, and visiting teacher not receiving a salary according to the schedules required in sub-sections (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 1 of this Act shall be entitled to a salary increase of $300 in the school year 1953-54, in excess of the salary received at December 1, 1952, in accordance with such supervising teacher's, supervisor's of pupil personnel, and visiting teacher's years of teaching and supervising service, and shall be entitled to a further salary increase of $300 in the school year 1954-55, or a total increase of $600 in excess of the salary received at December 1, 1952, in accordance with such supervising teacher's, supervisor's of pupil personnel, and visiting teacher's years of teaching and supervising service; provided, however, that such salary increase of $300 in each such respective school year shall be paid only to the extent that it would not result in the salary received by any such supervising teacher, supervisor of pupil personnel, or visiting teacher being in excess of the amounts as required in sub-sections (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 1 of this Act and in accordance with the qualifications and teaching and supervising service of any such supervising teacher, supervisor of pupil personnel, or visiting teacher. Provided, further, that any County or Baltimore City may pay at its own expense salaries in excess of those provided in sub-sections (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of Section 1 of this Act.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That during the school years 1953-54 and 1954-55, being respectively in the State fiscal years ending on June 30, 1954, and June 30, 1955, no moneys shall be paid from the State Treasury to or on account of any of the Boards of Education of the counties of this State, or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City, pursuant to the provisions of this Act, in any amount or amounts in excess of those to be paid according to the provisions of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), unless and until the State Comptroller and the State Department of Education shall have received satisfactory assurances from the Board of Education of each such political sub-division, respec-
