

153.

(b) In each county employing fewer than thirty (30) teachers in the white schools there shall be appointed one part-time supervising or helping teacher; in each county employing thirty (30) and fewer than eighty (80) teachers in the white schools, there shall be appointed one supervising teacher or helping teacher; in each county employing eighty (80) but fewer than one hundred twenty (120) teachers in white schools, there shall be appointed two supervising teachers or helping teachers; in each county employing one hundred twenty (120) but not more than one hundred sixty (160) teachers in the white schools, there shall be appointed three supervising teachers or helping teachers; in each county employing more than one hundred sixty (160) teachers in the white schools, there shall be appointed one supervising teacher or helping teacher for each additional fifty (50) teachers or major fraction thereof in the white schools; and these supervising teachers or helping teachers shall receive such compensation as the county board of education shall direct; provided that no person shall be eligible for appointment as supervising teacher or helping teacher who does not hold from the State Superintendent of Schools a certificate in supervision as provided for in Section 97 of this Article; nor shall the appointment of any person by a county board of education as supervising teacher or helping teacher be valid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. In each county employing more than ten (10) and fewer than thirty (30) colored teachers there shall be appointed at least one part-time supervising or helping teacher; in each county employing thirty (30) and fewer than eighty (80) colored teachers there shall be employed one full-time colored supervising or helping teacher; in each county employing eighty (80) colored teachers there shall be employed two colored supervising or helping teachers; provided that no person shall be eligible for appointment as supervising teacher or helping teacher who does not hold from the State Superintendent of Schools a certificate in supervision as provided for in Chapter 8, Section 97 of this Article; nor shall the appointment of any person by a county board of education as supervising teacher or helping teacher be valid without the written approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. [And provided, further, that no full-time supervising teacher, appointed under the provisions of this section or continued in office under the provisions of this section, holding a Bachelor's Degree; shall be paid an annual salary of less than Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars