SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That before the provisions of this Act shall become effective, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall submit the question to the qualified voters of said county at the next general election held in the County of Baltimore. The proper authorities shall cause to be printed on the ballots to be used at said election the title of this Act and underneath said title on separate lines a square or box to the right and opposite the words "For Referendum on Bond Issues" and a corresponding square or box to the right of and opposite the words "Against Referendum on Bond Issues", so that the said voters shall be able to designate by a cross-mark in the proper square or box his or her decision for or against referendums on bond issues.

If a majority of the votes cast at said election in the County of Baltimore on said question shall be "For Referendum on Bond Issues", then this Act shall automatically become effective in said county. If a majority of the votes cast in said county on said question shall be "Against Referendum on Bond Issues", then this Act shall not become effective in said county.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 27, 1953.
