

immediately after Section 91 thereof, and all to read as follows:

91. (e) A parole is a conditional release from imprisonment, granted by the [Governor] Board of Parole and Probation to any of certain classes [or] of prisoners in any adult penal or correctional institution of this State, in the manner provided for in this sub-title. A parole shall be evidenced by an order in writing, and entitles the recipient thereof to leave the institution in which he was imprisoned, and to serve the remainder of his term outside the confines thereof if he shall satisfactorily comply with all the terms and conditions provided in the parole order. Each such paroled prisoner shall be deemed to remain in legal custody until the expiration of his full, undiminished term; and upon having violated the conditions of his parole, shall be remanded to the institution from which he was paroled.

91A. There is hereby created a Department of Parole and Probation, the head of which shall be the Board of Parole and Probation as hereinafter constituted. The Chairman of such Board shall be the Director of Parole and Probation. The Director shall have the authority to assign to the associate members of the Board such administrative and other duties as he may, from time to time, deem appropriate.

91B. A Board of Parole and Probation, hereinafter referred to as the "Board" is hereby established. It shall be composed of a Chairman and two associates, all of whom shall be residents of the State, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate without regard to political affiliations for terms of six years, except that of the members initially appointed under the provisions of this Act, the Chairman shall be appointed for a term of six years and the associate members for terms of four years and two years, respectively. The Governor may remove any member of the Board for disability, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office or misconduct, giving any such member a copy of the charges preferred and the opportunity of being first publicly heard in person or by council. If such member shall be removed, the Governor shall file in the Office of the Secretary of State a complete statement of all charges made against such member, and his findings thereof, together with a complete record of the proceedings. A vacancy on the Board shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired portion of the term of the vacant office. The Chairman of the Board shall receive an annual
