

ditioned for the proper disbursement of all moneys belonging to said Town and the faithful performance of all other duties of said office; such bond to be acceptable whether given individually or by all three Town Commissioners as a "blanket" surety bond, and the expense of which shall be borne by the Town.

51. (Vacancies) If any of said Town Commissioners, duly elected, shall refuse or neglect to qualify, die, remove from the Town, resign, or become otherwise disqualified or unable to perform the duties of his office, his place shall be declared vacant and shall be filled for the remainder of his term by the selection of someone possessing the qualifications for a Town Commissioner aforesaid by the remaining Town Commissioners. Within ten days after such appointment, the person so selected shall qualify in the manner provided in Sections 49 and 50.

52. (Salary) Each Town Commissioner shall receive a salary of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per annum, of which the sum of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) shall be payable out of the General Funds of the Town and One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) shall be payable out of the funds of the Electric Plant Department. But in the event the electric plant shall ever be sold or leased as provided in Section 107,, then the salaries of the Town Commissioners shall be paid out of the General Funds of the Town.

53. (Officers) The Town Commissioners shall, at the first regular meeting to be held after the qualification of each, select from among themselves one person as President, one person as Secretary and one person as Treasurer, each of whom may perform the duties usually incident to the office of such an officer in a domestic business corporation.

54. (Meetings)—The Town Commissioners shall meet at least once every week in regular session, at such time as they may determine, to act upon such municipal business as may come before them. The Town Commissioners may meet in special sessions as much oftener as they may think proper. A majority shall be a quorum for the consideration of municipal business.

55. (Witnesses) The Town Commissioners are authorized to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers before them,
