

code and the requirements for building permits, subject to the referendum of the voters of the Town at a regular or special Town election.

(7) Explosives. To control the use and handling of dangerous and explosive materials, and to prevent the firing of any firearms or other explosive materials.

(8) Filth. To compel the owners or occupants of any premises, building or outhouses situated in the Town, when the same shall become filthy or unwholesome, to abate or cleanse the same upon written notification to be served by a police officer of the Town upon the owner or occupant of any such premises, building or outhouse, and if the same shall not be abated or cleansed within ten (10) days after the service of such notification, to authorize the same to be done under the direction of a police officer of the Town and assess the expenses thereof against the property of such owner or occupant, and to make such expense a lien upon such property. To provide that the failure to obey such notification shall be punishable as misdemeanors.

(9) Finances. To levy, assess and collect taxes, and to borrow money within the limits provided by this Charter; to have the general management and control of the finances of the Town; and to designate the banks or other depositories of this State in which shall be deposited the funds of the Town.

(10) Fines. To provide that violations of ordinances and resolutions authorized by this Charter shall be punishable as misdemeanors, but no penalty shall exceed a fine of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and imprisonment for ninety (90) days. Imprisonment in default of fine and costs shall be regulated by the provisions of Section 4 of Article 38 of the Annotated Code of Maryland and any amendments thereto.

All fines, forfeitures, and penalties imposed by any ordinance or resolution of the Town Commissioners may be recovered in the corporate name of the Town before a Trial Magistrate, as small debts are recovered, and the money arising therefrom shall be paid to the Town for its use. Provided, that any person subject to any fine, forfeiture, or penalty by virtue of any ordinance passed under authority granted in this Charter shall have a right to appeal within ten (10) days to the Circuit Court of the County in which such fine, forfeiture or penalty was imposed and shall have the right, if he so elects, to a
