260. No fee or costs whatever in addition to or in excess of those authorized by Sections 258 and 259 shall be charged in connection with any action or proceeding before such Justice of the Peace. No Justice of the Peace, officer or clerk shall be entitled for his own use or benefit to any of the foregoing fees or costs, or to any other fees or costs for services performed by him. Any person who shall demand, charge or receive any fee, cost or amount in violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to pay a fine of not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00 for each offense.

261. If it appears the ends of justice be best served by waiver of prepayment of any fees or costs provided in Section 258, any Justice of the Peace shall have power to waive the prepayment of the same. Where a party desires a waiver of the prepayment of fees or costs, he shall under oath, answer such inquiries as may be made of him respecting his financial status and ability to pay. Any willful false swearing under the provisions hereof shall be punishable as perjury under the criminal laws of the State.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1953.

Approved April 27, 1953.
