

vacancy is filled by an election. The Mayor shall, at their first meeting after each election, appoint one councilman to be known as "Police Commissioner," who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all police regulations of said town; one councilman to be known as "Street Commissioner," who shall have under his special charge the supervision of streets, alleys, public grounds and property of the town and be charged with the duty of keeping the streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property in a clean and sanitary condition and with the enforcement of all rules, regulations and ordinances necessary to these ends, and who shall determine that the conditions of the grant of any franchise or privilege are complied with and performed; one councilman to be known as "Water and Light Commissioner," who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all regulations with respect to said systems including the expansion or improvement of said systems where necessary for the protection of the health or welfare of the citizens; and one councilman to be known as "Finance Commissioner", who shall have under his special charge the collection of all revenues and taxes belonging to said town from whatever source the same may be derived, and who shall be responsible for the finances of said city or town. The Mayor shall have general supervision over all the departments of the town and may require full and particular information at any time from any Commissioner as to the affairs of his department, but the Mayor shall have no power to countermand any orders given by a Commissioner of any department, or in any manner whatsoever to interfere with the authority of any Commissioner in his own department; but all acts of every kind and description done by any Commissioner in his department may be modified or annulled by the Mayor and Councilmen as a body; and the Mayor and Councilmen as a body may pass any orders that they deem proper in regard to any department of the town, and such orders shall be binding upon the Commissioner of that Department. The said Mayor and Councilmen shall, by a majority vote of all the members thereof, have the power to appoint all officers and subordinates in all the departments of the town. If the Mayor and/or any councilman shall fail to perform any duty imposed upon him by law, ordinance or by order of the Mayor and Councilmen lawfully passed, the Mayor or Councilman so failing or refusing to perform such duty may be expelled by a vote of three-fifths of all the members of the Mayor and Town Council, the Mayor to be considered a member of said
