

council shall be required to make up the deficiency from the general revenues of the city. For this purpose the city may levy a special tax in addition to the One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents ($1.25) limit provided for in Section 56. Special assessment bonds shall be issued for a period of time no longer than is necessary to collect the special assessments. Special assessment bonds may be issued by the council at its discretion without being submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city, and shall not be deemed to be included under the ten per cent (10%) bond limit established by Section 62 of this charter. The council shall provide by ordinance for the issuing of special assessment bonds in all respects not covered by this section.

ARTICLE XI

Property

POSSESSION:

99. All municipal property, franchises, and funds of every kind not belonging to or in the possession of the mayor and councilmen are vested in the City of Frostburg.

ACQUISITION:

100. The City of Frostburg may buy or accept as a gift any property it deems necessary for any public or municipal purpose, and may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any property belonging to the city.

CONDEMNATION:

101. The City of Frostburg shall have the power to condemn any property, right, or interest, belonging to any person, persons, corporation, or corporations (whether such corporation be public or private, and whether or not such property, right, or interest be impressed with a prior public or quasi public use) for the purpose of making any public improvement. The manner of procedure in case of any condemnation proceeding shall be that established in Article 33A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Eminent Domain." By way of enumeration and not limitation, public improvements shall be construed to include sewers, drains, disposal plants, water systems, water plants, water and water courses, rights-of-way, public ways, sidewalks, public parks, markets, and parking lots.
