

(c) The term "non-resident junk dealer" or "non-resident junk dealer's agent" shall include all persons and firms who or which act as junk dealers or junk dealers' agents who are non-residents of Maryland.

241. (License Required.) (a) No person within the State of Maryland, ~~except within the City of Baltimore,~~ shall engage in the business of resident junk dealer or resident junk dealer's agent without a license therefor, which license shall be issued as provided in this sub-section.

(b) The annual license fee to act as a resident junk dealer shall be Ten Dollars ($10.00) and as a junk dealer's agent shall be Five Dollars ($5.00); to act as a "non-resident junk dealer" or a "non-resident junk dealer's agent" who buys or solicits for the purchase of junk within the State of Maryland shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

(c) No non-resident junk dealer shall be permitted to maintain a fixed place of business within the State but may purchase junk from any registered resident junk dealer without complying with the provisions as above outlined; but if said non-resident junk dealer comes into the State of Maryland in any vehicle, said non-resident junk dealer shall not be permitted to transport from this State in said vehicle any junk purchased within this State unless there is compliance with this sub-title.

(d) Every resident and non-resident junk dealer or agent desiring a license in compliance with this sub-title shall certify to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County in which the junk yard is located, or in which he does business, his name and business address. The Clerk of the Court, upon payment of the proper fees, shall issue such licenses numerically and shall maintain a record setting forth the name and address of the licensee, and the number of the license, and shall collect therefor an issuing fee of $.50 per license. Such licenses shall not be devisable and shall not be transferable.

242. (Purchase—Books to be Kept.) (a) It shall be unlawful for any resident junk dealer or agent or any non-resident junk dealer or agent as herein defined to barter, purchase, exchange, buy or accept from any person, firm or corporation any junk as herein defined, without providing and keeping books and making therein at the time of such purchase, exchange, receipt or acceptance, the entries hereinafter provided.