

mentary Law”, sub-title “Debts”, and to enact a new Section 111 in lieu thereof, said new section to stand in the place and stead of the section so repealed, clarifying the provisions of said section and eliminating any uncertainty as to its terms by reason of its having been amended by Chapter 468 and also by Chapter 508 of the Acts of 1949.

WHEREAS, Section 111 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code was amended by Chapter 468 and also by Chapter 508 of the Acts of 1949; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 468 of 1949 amended this section in order to extend the time in which certain suits may be brought against an executor or administrator where there is a delay in the appointment or qualification of the executor or administrator; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 508 of the Acts of 1949 amended this section in order to increase the amount which an executor or administrator may recover from a tortfeasor for the funeral expenses of the decedent; and

WHEREAS, Members of the bench and bar in Maryland have expressed some doubt as to the present terms and provisions of this section by reason of its having been amended by two acts of the same session of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, It is desirable to repeal this section and to re-enact it in order to end any uncertainty as to its present provisions; and

WHEREAS, The restrictive wording in the title of both Acts of 1949 indicates the clear intent of the General Assembly to make both changes in the laws as indicated in the respective acts; now therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 111 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title “Testamentary Law”, sub-title “Debts”, be and it is hereby repealed and that a new Section 111 be and it is hereby enacted in lieu thereof, said new section to stand in the place and stead of the section so repealed, and to read as follows:

111. Executors and Administrators shall have full power to commence and prosecute any personal action whatever,
