All bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law of the State. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the said Board of County Commissioners may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest. Said Board of County Commissioners may sell such bonds in such manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interest of the county, but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than four per centum per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding, however, from such computation the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. The provisions of Sections 32 to 34, inclusive, of Article 31 and any amendments thereto, shall not apply to bonds issued under the provisions of this section.*
