

every two years thereafter, the qualified voters of the town shall elect a mayor to serve for a term of two years and until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Also on the fourth Monday in April, 1953, the qualified voters of the town shall elect three (3) Commissioners, for a term of two (2) years, expiring on the first Wednesday in May, 1955, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The two (2) members of the Board of Commissioners in office having one (1) year remaining to serve, after the adoption of this Act, shall serve out their terms, which shall expire on the first Wednesday in May 1954, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. On the fourth Monday in April, 1954, the qualified voters of the town shall elect two (2) commissioners. Thereafter on the fourth Monday in April of each and every year the qualified voters of the town shall elect the requisite number of commissioners to serve for a term of two (2) years.

766F. Conduct of Elections. It shall be the duty of the Board of Commissioners to appoint three (3) election judges, designate an appropriate place or places for voting and provide ballots and suitable ballot boxes. Spaces shall be provided on the ballot for voters to vote for candidates not listed thereon. The election judges shall keep the polls open at least from 2 P. M. until 6 P. M., on election days or for longer hours if the Board of Commissioners requires it; however, these additional hours shall be determined prior to the notice provided for in this sub-title and shall be included in said notice. Within forty-eight hours after the closing of the polls, the election judges shall determine the vote cast for each candidate or question and shall certify the results of the election to the Town Clerk, who shall record the results in the minutes of the Board of Commissioners and shall notify the person elected of their election. The person with the highest number of votes for mayor shall be declared elected mayor. The persons with the highest number of votes for commissioner shall be declared elected commissioners.

766G. Vacancies. In case of a vacancy on the Board of Commissioners for any reason, the Board of Commissioners shall elect some qualified person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term. In case of a vacancy in the office of mayor for any reason, the vice-president of the Board of Commissioners may continue to vote on all issues coming before the Board of Commissioners. All vacancies in the Board of Commissioners shall be filled by the favorable votes of a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Commissioners. The result of any such vote shall be recorded
