Procedure of Council:

341-10. The Council shall determine its own rules and order of business. It shall keep a journal of its proceedings and enter therein the yeas and nays upon final action on any question, resolution, or ordinance, or at any other time if required by any one member. The journal shall be open to public inspection.

Vacancies in Council:

341-11. Vacancies in the Council shall be filled as provided in Section 340-30 of this charter.

Departments:

341-12. The council by ordinance may create, change, and abolish offices, departments, or agencies, other than the offices, departments, or agencies established by this charter. The council by ordinance may assign additional functions or duties to offices, departments, or agencies established by this charter, but may not discontinue or assign to any other office, department, or agency any function or duty assigned by the charter to a particular office, department or agency.

Salaries of Officers and Employees:

341-13. The Mayor and Council shall fix the salaries of all officers and employees of the city, except the salaries of the Mayor and Councilmen.

Veto:

341-14. All ordinances passed by the Council shall be delivered by the Clerk to the Mayor for his approval or disapproval. The Mayor shall sign any ordinance that he approves and not sign any ordinance which he disapproves. The Mayor shall return all ordinances to the Clerk within six days after delivery to him with his approval or disapproval. Ordinances approved by the Mayor shall be law. Ordinances disapproved by the Mayor shall be returned to the Council with a message stating the reasons for disapproval. Any disapproved ordinance shall not become a law unless subsequently passed by a favorable vote of four-fifths of the Council within thirty days from the time of the return of the ordinance. If the Mayor fails to return any ordinance within six days of its delivery as aforesaid it shall be deemed to be approved by the Mayor and shall become law in the same manner as an ordinance signed by him.
