

Ordinances:

341-15. No ordinance shall be passed at the meeting at which it is introduced. At any regular or special meeting of the Council held not less than six nor more than sixty days after the meeting at which an ordinance was introduced, it shall be passed, or passed as amended, or rejected, or its consideration deferred to some specified future date. In cases of emergency the above requirements may be suspended by the affirmative vote of four members of the Council. Every ordinance, unless it be passed as an emergency ordinance, shall become effective at the expiration of thirty calendar days following approval by the Mayor or passage by the Council over his veto. An emergency ordinance shall become effective on the date specified in the ordinance, but no emergency ordinance shall become effective until approved by the Mayor or passed over his veto by the Council.

Referendum:

341-16. If before the expiration of thirty calendar days following approval of any ordinance by the Mayor or passage of any ordinance over the Mayor's veto, a petition is filed with the Clerk containing the signatures of not less than ten percent of the qualified registered voters of the city and requesting that the ordinance, or any part thereof, be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city for their approval or disapproval, then the Council shall be required to have the ordinance, or the part thereof requested for referendum, submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city at the next regular city election, or, in the Council's discretion, at a special election occurring before the next regular election. No ordinance or part thereof requested for referendum, shall become effective following the receipt of such a petition until and unless approved at the election by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question. Any ordinance or part thereof disapproved by the voters, shall stand repealed. The provisions of this section shall be self executing, but the Council may adopt ordinances in furtherance of these provisions and not in conflict with them.

File of Ordinances:

341-17. Ordinances shall be permanently filed by the clerk and shall be kept available for public inspection.
