

and Punishments”, sub-title “Sabbath Breaking”, said new section to be known as Section 610C and to follow immediately after Section 610B of said Article, authorizing the exhibition of motion pictures on Sunday after two (2.00) o’clock P. M., within Caroline County, repealing all Public General and Public Local Laws inconsistent therewith to the extent of any such inconsistency, and providing for a referendum vote thereon.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1951 Edition), title “Crimes and Punishments”, sub-title “Sabbath Breaking”, said new section to be known as Section 610C, to follow immediately after Section 610B of said Article, and to read as follows:

610C. (a) Nothing contained in Sections 578 and 605 of this Article shall be construed to prohibit or make unlawful the exhibition of motion pictures after two (2.00) o’clock P. M. on Sunday in Caroline County, whether the same be exhibited with or without a charge or admission fee. The work or employment of any operator, ticket seller or other employe or attendant in connection with such exhibition, shall not be unlawful because performed on Sunday. Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the exhibition of motion pictures on Sunday between the hours of 6.00 o’clock P. M. and 8.00 o’clock P. M.

(b) Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each and every such violation.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, whether Public General or Public Local Laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That Sections 1 and 2 of this Act shall not become effective until they have been submitted for adoption or rejection to the qualified voters of Caroline County. On the third Tuesday in May, 1953, there shall be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of Caroline County, the question whether the exhibition of motion pictures on Sunday shall be authorized as provided by Section 1 hereof in said county.
