

fined by Chapter 374 of the Laws of Maryland of 1947 and said Chapter 123 of the Laws of Maryland of 1949.

The Commission is hereby authorized and empowered from time to time during any fiscal year to borrow such sums of money on promissory notes, to be known as Tax Anticipation Certificates of Indebtedness to bear interest at not exceeding six per centum (6%), per annum, to be signed by the Chairman and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Commission, as may be necessary to meet its administrative operating expenses within [Montgomery] either County [under this sub-title,] from any bank or institution or individual willing to lend the same, and from time to time to issue and to renew its Tax Anticipation Certificates of Indebtedness for the same bearing interest at not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum, provided that the total amount so borrowed and outstanding in any fiscal year shall not exceed 75 per centum of the total proceeds received by the Commission from the [4-cent] administrative tax levied and collected during the Commission's preceding fiscal year within [Montgomery] such County [either in the Maryland-Washington Metropolitan District or in the Maryland-Washington Regional District as the case may be]; and provided further, that all moneys so borrowed within any fiscal year shall be repaid during the next succeeding fiscal year from the proceeds of the [4-cent] administrative tax received by the Commission from such County in the fiscal year last mentioned.

As compensation for acting as District Council of Prince George's County [;] the members, the attorney, and the clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall each receive in addition to the compensation now received by them the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) per annum, payable monthly, which amounts as to the Board of County Commissioners to the extent of $200.00 each per annum shall be paid from the proceeds of the [three cents] administrative tax levied in said county under the provision of this section, and as to said Commissioners to the extent of $200.00 each per annum from the general funds of said county, and as to the Clerk and Attorney of the Board of County Commissioners said sum of $400.00 respectively, shall be paid to them from the general funds of the County.

Any funds over and above that necessary for operating and administrative purposes and any other funds not specifically pledged by law which heretofore or hereafter remain in the hands of the Commission may be used in the
