

7 P.M. on the said days for the purpose of enrolling and registering the qualified voters from their respective wards, in such places as shall be designated by the Commissioners of Cambridge, and shall receive compensation, in the sum of [five] ten dollars per day, for their services. Said registration shall specify the name, age, color and the residence of the voters on each street, lane or alley of the town, and for this purpose the Supervisor of Elections by and with the advice and consent of the Commissioners of Cambridge, shall provide the necessary registration books, suitable for said purpose. After the registration is completed, the said books shall be returned by the said officers of registration to the Supervisor of Elections at the City Hall, who shall safely keep and preserve them; and in every year after the year 1912, in the month of June, and on the first Tuesday of said month and the Wednesday following the said Tuesday, in the said month, the Supervisor of Elections shall sit as an officer of registration, in the City Hall or in some other centrally located and convenient place, for the purpose of revising the registration books of the several wards and for transferring voters from one ward to the other in case such voters have changed their residence, and also for the purpose of adding the names of new and qualified voters to the list of registration, and of striking off from said registry the names of voters, known to be dead or proved to be dead to his satisfaction, or who are known to have changed their place of residence by removal, from the town of Cambridge or by removing from one ward to the other, or names of persons whose removal as aforesaid is proved to the satisfaction of said officer. In case of any special election, the registry lists, as revised at the preceding June revision shall be used as evidence of the right of any person to vote. The Supervisor of Elections shall have authority and is empowered to appoint as officers of registration, several assistants, not to exceed one for each ward, to conduct such registration, each assistant to be paid the sum of [five] ten dollars a day, and all officers of registration referred to in this section, when qualifying, to be subject to and to comply with the same provisions of law as do the clerks and judges of election as set forth in Section 52 of this Article. When sitting as an officer of registration the Supervisor of Elections, and all officers of registration, shall have power to administer an oath to every applicant for registration and to any person, called as a witness to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and any false swearing shall be perjury. The Commissioners of Cambridge shall cause due advertisement of