

Avenue produced until said center line, crossing Glasgow Street and continuing until it intersects a point which is 300 feet measured in a southwesterly direction from the center line of said Glasgow Street. Thence continuing along a line which is parallel to and 300 feet distant from the center line of said Glasgow Street and proceeding along said parallel line in a southeasterly direction until said parallel line intersects the present city limits which is known as the second line in the present city limits. Thence along said second line in the present city limits South 31 degrees 50 minutes west to a cement boulder marked on the top thereof "C1927 No. 3" set down on the southwest side of the State Road leading from Cambridge to Lloyds. Thence in a southeasterly direction to a point where the center line of Maces Lane intersects the center line of Bayly Road; thence in an easterly direction to a point where the northerly boundary of the old Fair Ground now owned by the Phillips Packing Company intersects the center line of the State Road leading from Cambridge to Church Creek. Thence in an easterly direction to a point where the center line of Little Gypsy Hill Road intersects the center line of the railroad leading from Cambridge to Seaford; thence along the center of said road in a north-easterly direction and crossing the State Highway leading from Cambridge to Vienna and known as Route No. 50; thence continuing along the center line of said road to its end and still continuing along said center line out into the middle of the Choptank River to a point where it intersects the division line between Talbot County and Dorchester County; thence along said division line to the place of beginning.

(c) Provided that when extending the boundaries of the corporate limits of the City of Cambridge as authorized herein The Commissioners of Cambridge will proceed in accordance with the provisions of Section 42 of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Dorchester County", sub-title "Cambridge".

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1953.

Approved May 6, 1953.